OPS Level 3 Briefing Note

Incident Number	22-17557
Update	52
Division	Central
Sector	23
Type of Incident	Freedom Convoy
Location	Ottawa
Incident Date and Time	28/01/2022 13:29

Brief Synopsis

Update as of 0209hrs
- No protesters on PH
-small pocket of people in the Red Zone walking around 30-40 people
The perimeter remains the same

Staffing
delayed changeovers duty at approx 11-1130 for AFTS due to learning curve and complications from adapting to 4 platoon schedule

Night shift numbers
40 OPS officers - 9 on CSET (Contain Surge & Enforcement Team)
30 OPP officers - (13 static units)
20 RCMP officers - (9 static units)
3 Cornwall - (static positions)

Items of note:
-PLT was able to negotiate approx 11 trucks out of RCGT earlier today but there is still some people and infrastructure to remove from the site (6 Bobtails remain)
-some strategic movement of trucks on Wellington consistent with positioning to block emergency lane simply by pulling forward or possibly to make it harder to tow.

- 10 trucks departed from Bank/ Laurier - indicated to officer they were headed home as they were worried about police action
- 1 unoccupied passenger vehicle towed - Nepean and Bank for obstructing highway prompting two others to leave immediately
- Jerry cans being used as percussion instruments after midnight by a few small groups
- Tik Tok video of organizer telling truckers to lock doors, turn on horn and crawl in truck bunks if they see a large group of police approach
- 1 arrest and unconditional release after a jerry can seizure
- a couple of reports of building material spotted being carried around in Wellington area, the purpose is unknown and officers were unable to locate where they were specifically going

The SCC is continuing to work on a sustainable staffing plan for continued operations.
